BEACH HOUSE

Host your retreat at ALIVE BEACH HOUSE. El Transito, Nicaragua

ABOUT US

Alive Beach House is a small boutique hotel built around the sea — every room faces the ocean and the property sits steps from a reliable left point break and an adjoining beach break. Your group can take exclusive use of the whole place: practice in our 45 m<sup>2</sup> beachfront yoga palapa, swim in the oceanfront pool, play on the beach volleyball court, or unwind in our mangrove chill area and lush tropical garden. Our on-site kitchen serves fresh, homemade, farm-to-table meals inspired by local flavours, and our team takes care of logistics so retreat leaders can focus on their program.

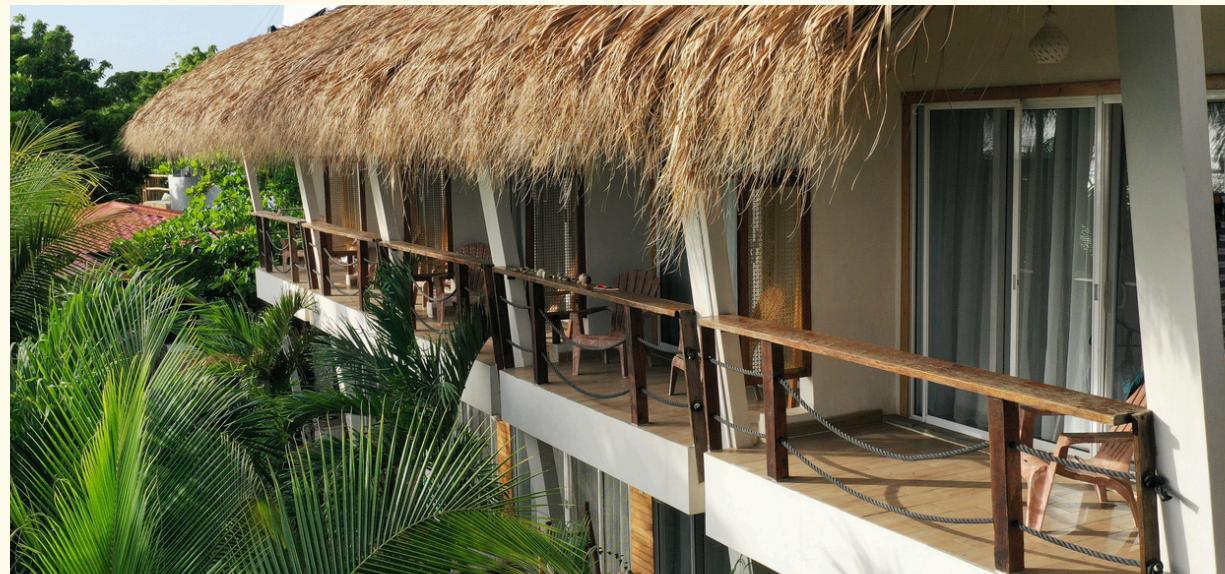

Authentic, relaxed, and deeply connected to place — Alive creates retreats that feel both effortless and unforgettable.

EL TRANSITO, NICARAGUA

El Tránsito is a hidden gem on Nicaragua's Pacific coast – a sleepy fishing village with a relaxed local vibe, warm smiles, and untouched beauty. Reached by a 13 km dirt road, it feels far from the crowds yet full of authentic charm.

Here, you can surf uncrowded waves with just a few locals, wander volcanic black-sand beaches at sunset, or explore natural tide pools that sparkle like paradise. Horses, cows, and even pigs sometimes roam the shoreline, adding to the village's raw, unspoiled character. With warm water year-round and breathtaking tranquility, El Tránsito is a rare retreat into nature and simplicity.
